CHAPTER 5 – CONCLUSION

Basically economic inequality will always exist and cannot be erased. But this inequality should be borne together in order to avoid adverse impacts. Based on the objectives and results obtained, the author wishes as follows:

1. Expected to increase social awareness.
2. More youth in the process can lead to stabilization and maturation of personality.
3. Discrimination against the poor is expected to no longer occur and could make actions to help the poor.
4. By following our country's motto "Bhineka Tunggal Ika", people should realize that there are differences, but that does not make discriminations or classification.
