ABSTRACT

The food and beverage industry is one of the non-oil and gas industry sectors that gives good source of revenue to the government, especially from the MSMEs. The community-based industrial approach touches the lowest levels of society and is an industry that is easy to develop. Starting from this background, Olatcha is expected to be established as an MSME business that specializes in croffle products with various creative flavors. In this project, Olatcha presents croffle products with original whipping cream, chocolate, and matcha fillings with prices starting from Rp 20.000,- for each product. The target market is the middle class aged 18 - 25 years. Olatcha is expected to open a shop at Jakarta Kota Station using a booth. Olatcha is expected to get a payback period in the first month and in the future, Olatcha will continue to evolve and create new flavor variants.

Keywords:desserts, MSMEs, entrepreneurship, matcha, croffle
