Business Proposal Project for WeiLai

Ignatius Lai

ABSTRACT (English)

WeiLai is a culinary UMKM that sells various types of noodles, founded by Ignatius Lai, a Hotel Operations student at Multimedia Nusantara University. This business presents a unique blend of noodles and Chinese cuisine flavors, making it a dynamic addition to the local culinary scene. The name "WeiLai" comes from Mandarin, where "Wei" means "to call" and "Lai" is taken from the founder's family name, representing an inviting atmosphere and promising a different dining experience.

The menu at WeiLai is designed with creativity, featuring interesting choices such as katsu noodles, teriyaki noodles, kungpao noodles, charsiu noodles, and seafood chowmein. Each dish presents a combination of traditional flavors with innovative sauces and toppings, targeting culinary lovers who want a familiar taste but with a distinctive touch.

In terms of finance, WeiLai shows healthy and promising business performance. Based on the financial report, daily gross income reached IDR 4,370,000, and with a daily gross profit of IDR 2,055,800 after deducting the cost of raw materials. After calculating daily operating costs of Rp 784,695, WeiLai earned a daily net profit of Rp 1,264,750, which if calculated annually, results in a net profit of around Rp 455 million. This figure shows that WeiLai is not only creative in making products, but also building a strong and relevant brand amidst tight industry competition.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

WeiLai is an emerging player in Indonesia's food and beverage industry, uniquely positioning itself by offering authentic Chinese noodles with a modern twist. Focused on affordable pricing and cultural authenticity, the business caters to a diverse market, particularly the low- to middle-income demographic seeking flavorful, convenient, and healthy meals. WeiLai's value proposition lies in its use of homemade ingredients, traditional cooking methods, and a fusion-inspired menu that blends Chinese culinary heritage with contemporary Asian influences, such as katsu, teriyaki, kungpao, and seafood options.

The business operates efficiently with lean monthly expenses totaling Rp 11,936,062 against a projected monthly revenue of Rp 45,000,000, yielding a strong monthly profit of Rp 33,063,938. With an annual revenue projection of Rp 540,000,000 and a profit margin of approximately 73%, WeiLai demonstrates high financial viability. Strategic pricing, operational simplicity, and customer-focused offerings give the business a competitive edge in a market driven by speed, affordability, and health-conscious dining preferences.

WeiLai's differentiation is further reinforced by its modern branding, eco-friendly practices, and strong digital marketing presence through platforms like Instagram, Gojek, and Grab. Its engagement strategies, such as influencer marketing and loyalty programs, help build community and brand loyalty. With scalable operations and expansion potential through additional outlets or mobile units, WeiLai is well-positioned for sustainable growth in Indonesia's dynamic post-pandemic food market.
